Booking Terms:

You must be physically fit and must not take part in the challenge if you have any physical illness etc which might result in you or others being put into danger. If in doubt ask your GP. The event organizers provide no insurance for your participation in the event and you take part at your own risk. You may wish to consider arranging your own insurance. Each participant must pay a £5 non-refundable booking fee. Booking fees will only be refunded if your application is not accepted. You are responsible for collecting all sponsorship monies and passing them on to the event organizers promptly. Each team must have an experienced leader who has experience of navigating using map and compass. All teams must follow instructions from the event organizers and marshals and follow the designated route except where to do so may result in danger. Instructions will be given for handling emergencies and situations where walkers wish to drop out en route and these procedures must be followed. Please be considerate of other walkers and members of the public not taking part in the challenge and follow the country code. Each participant must have the appropriate equipment for a challenge of this nature.

Please send your booking form with a single cheque for £5 per team member made payable to Kings Church Cockermouth and send c/o 81 Main Street, Great Broughton, Cumbria CA13 0YJ.
